

7th Grade

Eisenhower Jr. High

Soar Into Reading and Writing

Dear Future 7th Graders (and their Parents),

The Eisenhower 7th grade Language Arts teachers are excited to announce a summer literacy program. You will take part in reading and writing activities that will strengthen your skills. This is a mandatory assignment. All students will receive special recognition for completing this summer assignment.

Steps to Complete Summer Reading:

- 📖 Choose a book from Summer Jr. High Reading List. Make sure it is appropriate for your reading level.
- 📖 Use relevant information from your book to write your paragraphs on the pages provided in the Summer Reading for 7th Grade English Language Arts packet.
- 📖 Reading List and Packet are available on Eisenhower Web Site.

Bring the completed packet to your LA teacher by Friday, August 25th. This project will be the first impression your Language Arts teacher will have of you!

HAPPY READING!!!

7th Grade Summer Reading Assignment

In order to receive full credit for your summer reading, you must complete the following components.

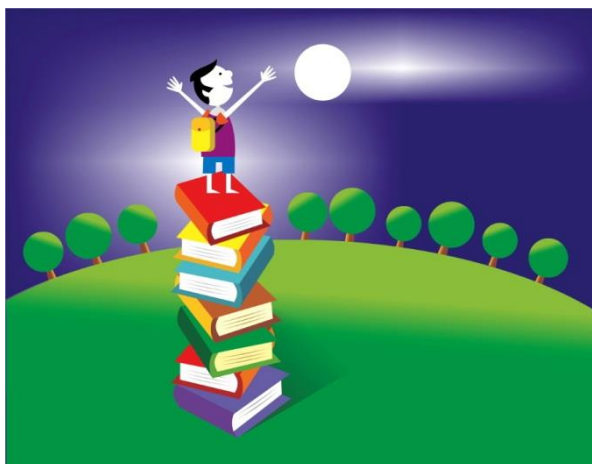

1. Read at least one book from the Jr. High Book list.
2. Write a summary, complete with details from the beginning, middle and end of the novel. (Include such things as main characters, conflicts, resolutions, etc.) The forms are included in this packet.
3. In addition, describe the main character from your novel and describe his/her personality traits. Consider the physical, emotional, social, and behavioral traits of this character and how they were important to the plot of the story? What does the character say and do that is important to the plot of the story? (10-15 sentences)
4. Lastly, explore the theme of your novel. What is the message? Why is it important for readers to understand? This too, should be explained in a well-developed paragraph. (10-15 sentences)

Your assignment should be handed in to your ELA teacher no later than Friday, August, 25th.

THIS ASSIGNMENT IS NOT OPTIONAL.

DO YOUR BEST!
